HONGKONG, MAY 13th, 1897.

In an interesting letter which appeared in our columns a few days ago the Hon. W.
MEIGH GOODMAN said he would be glad to see the statutory power possessed by Judges and Magistrates in this colony of examining an accused person under more frequently than at present. Practically the Acts conferring this power are a dead letter. The reason is, perhaps, not far to seek. If it is the Judge's duty to keep an open mind in the trial of a case, but this he might find difficult to do if he entered upon an independent examination of a prisoner, in which he would be liable to fall into the position of counsel for the prosecution or the defence, as the case might be. In the former case the jury might be inclined to think that the prisoner was being unfairly dealt with and acquit him on that ground, even though the evidence in itself were strong enough to convict. Whatever the reason, certain it is that Judges very seldom exercise the power conferred upon them, and on the more occasions that they have done so their questions have been directed simply to clearing up some point of detail arising on the evidence already given and not to the obtaining of a full and complete statement from the prisoner. Even if the power were more extensively used it would be but a poor substitute for the regular examination of the accused person as a witness by his own counsel and his cross-examination by the counsel for the Crown, as proposed by the Law of Evidence Bill now before the House of Commons. The second reading of that Bill was carried by 210 votes to 41, a majority of 169, so that there is little doubt this useful measure will at last be passed.
In that case no time ought to be lost in bringing into force a similar amendment of the law in this colony, for, as Mr. Goodman says, it would facilitate the ascertainment of the truth, whether of guilt or innocence, and with Assistants witnesses the difficulties in satisfactorily proving a case are often very great.
The necessity for an amendment of the law is even greater here than in England.

In the debate which took place in the House of Commons on the second reading of the Law of Evidence Bill the argument was all in favour of the measure. Several members opposed it, but their speeches are reported in the Times possess little or no substance. The only argument of any weight they advanced was that a nervous person taken out of the dock and placed in the witness box might, by reason of his nervousness not be able to give his evidence in a clear and connected manner and inferences to his disadvantage might be drawn from his confusion. We do not ourselves think that an innocent person would ever be prejudiced in that way, but even granting the possibility, the advantages and disadvantages on each side have to be weighed against each other, and the balance is decidedly in favour of the alteration of the existing law. Sir E. CLARKE made the strongest speech in favour of the Bill and gave instances from his own experience showing the absurdity and danger of the existing law. One case he mentioned was that of a clergyman who was charged with committing a criminal offence in respect of some children. The only evidence that could have been called besides himself really was his wife, and she could not be called; he was convicted and sentenced to two years' imprisonment for each offence, the terms to be consecutive—that was to say, four years' imprisonment. He went to prison in November. The man from prison put before the Home Secretary reasons for his release. The Home Secretary declined to make any recommendation until the girls had been indicted for perjury. In the following April or May the girls were indicted for perjury. The jury found them guilty of perjury. Why? Because at that trial the man and his wife were the witnesses, and the girls who had given evidence at the previous trial could not be examined. The girls were convicted of perjury; the man was released from prison. He brought an action against his solicitor for want of care or judgment in defending him, but the question of his guilt or innocence was never tried in a case in which all persons could be heard. So it came about that the man was convicted of a shameful offence because his mouth and that of his wife were closed; the children were convicted because they could not be heard when a charge of perjury was brought against them; and if it was possible, said Sir EDWARD, under any system of law for so scandalous a thing as that to have taken place, surely it was time that some remedy should be applied. Other cases he mentioned were those in which persons who had been convicted of fraud subsequently proved their innocence when they appeared as witnesses in civil actions arising out of the same circumstances as those in connection with which they had been criminally convicted. Such cases as these show the importance of an innocent person accused of crime of being able to go into the witness-box and give evidence on his own behalf.

As to guilty persons, Sir F. LOCKWOOD put the matter neatly in a single sentence. He was sure, he said, there was no hon. and learned member who had been in the habit of defending prisoners who did not remember how often he had appealed to justice as to the hardship "to this poor man who stands at the bar with "his mouth closed" and all the time thinking his stars that he could not put him in the box. To the innocent the proposed amendment of the law will be an advantage; to the guilty it will be a disadvantage, but surely no one would contend that a state of the law which favours guilt should be maintained.

The D.D.E. steamer Thelia, from Hamburg, left Singapore yesterday and may be expected here on or about the 15th inst.

The P. M. steamer China, with mails, &c., which left Hongkong on the 13th April for San Francisco, via Shanghai, Nagasaki, Kobe, Yokohama, and Honolulu, arrived at her destination on the 10th inst.

A Government Gazette extraordinary was issued yesterday containing a notification appointing Hon. Sir Henry Blake to the office of Secretary for Works, to be the Water Authority under the Water Works Ordinance, 1890.

The Compagnie Nationale's steamer Canton, which sank a few weeks since at Saigon, after stranding a coal while leaving the port, has been towed from Saigon, passed the bar, and is to be taken to Saigon for repairs if the dock is at liberty; otherwise she will go to Singapore.

The Straits Times of the 6th May says—The steamer Tracer was released from guarantee this morning. It has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the medical authorities that the steamer is not a danger to the health of the colony. The steamer was released from Swatow on the 1st of May. The steamer was passengers, who are at present on St. John's Island, are expected to be released next Tuesday.

"Anglo-Colonial" writes in the Colony and India—I have just heard, upon very good authority, that Sir Henry Blake is to succeed Sir Charles Mitchell as Governor of the Straits Settlements at an early date. It has for some time been rumoured that Sir Charles Mitchell would retire shortly, and there now appears to be a good opportunity of finding a suitable successor for Sir Henry Blake.

According to the Seminarie Coloniale, the Sioux rice crop, which it was believed would be an exceptional one and a third above the average, has been ruined by a heavy rain, and the rice which had been sown in the fields and meadows had been washed away. The difficulties to fulfil their engagements. Rice was not sown in the fields, and the rice which was sown in the fields had been washed away.
It was not until the date of the paper from which we quote, 4th May, 1895. This increases, says our contemporary, if it does not mean rain, will at least involve many in heavy loss.

At a meeting of the Local Council of Macao held on the 21st April Mr. A. J. Busto, the President, stated that in his double capacity of Consular Agent for France and President of the Local Council he had received information through the French Consul at Hongkong that Dr. Yersin had promised to send some tubes of his anti-plague serum. Mr. Busto said it gave him great pleasure to hear that the French Government had been so generous in offering to the colony the benefit of the anti-plague serum, and he hoped that the French Government would be able to supply the colony with the anti-plague serum. The French Consul at Hongkong stated that the serum was already on its way.

Messrs. Wm. G. Hale & Co., in their circular dated Saigon, 1st May, say—Rice—There is not much to report regarding our market. Prices
